

Oakwood School, Horley

Client:

Oakfield School

Description of the works:

Construction of a single-storey extension to the school to provide new classroom space.

Principle Consultant:

Local Building Surveyor employed through the School.

Contract Duration: 12 weeks

Items to note

This was a fast contract to provide several much-needed classrooms for the school, running largely over the summer holiday break to ensure minimum disruption for the school.

