

New Music School at the Salesian College, Farnborough

Client: Salesian College

Description of the works:

Construction of a new single-storey Music School for the College. This is a steel-framed building design incorporating latest acoustic techniques to enhance the musical effectiveness and performance of the Hall and practice studios.

Principal Consultants:

Architect: Drake & Kannemeyer

Project Manager: Drake & Kannemeyer

Contract value: £975,000

Form of main contract: JCT Intermediate Building Contract 2005

Contract duration 36 weeks

