

UCA Farnham – John Luard Building and Textiles Room Refurbishments

Client: University of Creative Arts

Description of works:

Works included Design and Refurbishment of the John Luard Building and the Textiles area of the Main Building. Stripping out of all flooring and internal doors to reconfigure into new teaching areas, to include new external exits and internal movable walls. Relocation and replacement of lighting and sockets along with data cables. New decoration throughout including walls and flooring

Principle Consultant: Design and Build Bisley direct

Project Managers: Fusion Project Management

Contract value: £820k

Duration: 12 Weeks

